Thank you for your support!

From Fr. Joe,

*This week we have celebrated 2 very important sacraments at Sacred Heart Church:
First Holy Communion and Confirmation.*

I am very happy to say that our children were all well prepared to receive their First Holy Communion this past Saturday. We held a practice this past Monday evening to prepare them for the sacrament, and I asked them about God and Jesus. The children were very responsive and eager to share what they had learned and even though they have been away for the past 4 months, they were very enthusiastic! I told them that Jesus gives himself to us in the Eucharist, hidden under what appears to be ordinary bread, because he wants to share His very life with us, give the gift of everlasting life, and show us how much he loves us. I said that even though he is invisible, he is really present in the Eucharistic Host. I then asked how they should respond to Jesus' saying :“I love you”, by giving us Holy Communion. I asked: “What do you think Jesus wants to hear in return?” The response was “I love You too.!” So that is their post-communion prayer. Just a simple direct prayer that gets right to the heart of it all. I was also very happy to see several of the dads as well as the moms. This preparation reflects well on their parents and their teachers. I am very grateful to all! Parents, I encourage you to bring your children to Mass to receive Jesus, although I know it is difficult to come right now because of COVID restrictions. We come to Mass to worship God and say “Thanks” for His love and to share in His sacrifice.

Both on Thursday and Friday evenings, twenty-nine of the young teenagers of our parishes also received the sacrament of Confirmation at Sacred Heart. In this time of so much disruption, unrest, and with the lack of a moral foundation in our society, it is both amazing and a joy to witness them make a commitment to becoming a more serious disciple of Jesus Christ.

Their decision to live a grace-filled life with courage, fortitude, and wisdom demonstrates a daring spirit of modern-day prophets who say “I choose to live differently from the ways of the world. I choose to believe in God and follow God’s will for me.”

This was not an easy decision, nor is it an easy age or time for our young people. They will probably be confronted and sometimes mocked for their faith. They need our support, our prayers and help to continue to follow the discipline and strength of will and fortitude that is needed. Our hope for them is that they always remain proud of their faith and open to the voice of God’s Holy Spirit, and that when they fall into sin, as we all do in our weakness, that they have the courage and humility to confess their sins, make amends, and begin again, again and again. As Pope Francis said, “God never get tired of forgiving us, but sometimes we get tired of asking.” May they never get tired of asking for forgiveness! I hope their confirmation was a day of deep joy for them, knowing they are standing by and for the one Friend who cares about them the most, and who dared to die on the cross out of love for them.

Our children are our hope and our future. May God bless them all and bring to completion the amazing work that has begun in each of their lives. Congratulations!

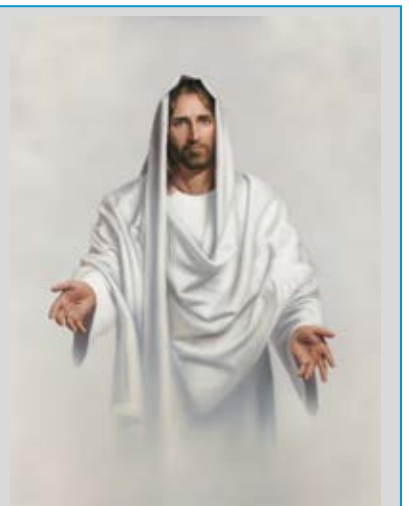

GOD OF LOVE AND LIFE FATHER, SON AND HOLY SPIRIT

“Come to me heedfully, listen, that you may have life.”

Today’s world filled with anguish, distress, persecution, riot, peril and death grabs our attention and blocks our careful listening to God’s word.

We can conquer all these distractions through Jesus.
His love of us and our love of him will give us life eternal.

The Transfiguration of the Lord

Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. -Matthew 17:1-2

"I pray that your love will overflow more and more, and that you will keep on growing and growing in knowledge and understanding." -Philippians 1:9

Today's readings

Reading I: Isaiah 55: 1-3

The Bible frequently uses the symbol of a banquet to celebrate God's care for Israel. Here the banquet is linked with the fulfillment of the covenant that was once made with King David.

Reading II: Romans 8: 35, 37-39

None of life's troubles or pain can make a true Christian forget the love of Christ made manifest in His death and resurrection. Even hostile forces cannot separate us from His love.

The Gospel: Matthew 14: 13-21

After curing the sick, Jesus feeds the people, likely numbering more than 15,000 in total. The blessing and breaking of the bread anticipates the Last Supper, which in turn does the same for the future heavenly banquet.

Monday: Jer 28:1-17; Ps 119:29, 43, 79, 80, 95, 102; Mt 14:22-36

Tuesday: Jer 30:1-2, 12-15, 18-22; Ps 102:16-18, 19-21, 29 and 22-23; Mt 14:22-36 or Mt 15:1-2, 10-14

Wednesday: Jer 31:1-7; Jer 31:10, 11-12ab, 13; Mt 15:21-28

Thursday: Dn 7:9-10, 13-14; Ps 97:1-2, 5-6, 9; 2 Pt 1:16-19; Mt 17:1-9

Friday: Na 2:1, 3; 3:1-3, 6-7; Dt 32:35cd-36ab, 39abcd, 41; Mt 16:24-28

Saturday: Hab 1:12—2:4; Ps 9:8-9, 10-11, 12-13; Mt 17:14-20

Sunday: 1 Kgs 19:9a, 11-13a; Ps 85:9, 10, 11-12, 13-14; Rom 9:1-5; Mt 14:22-33

SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Tuesday: St. John Vianney

Thursday: The Transfiguration of the Lord

Friday: First Friday, St. Sixtus II and Companions, St. Cajetan

Marriages: This wonderful sacrament is a joyous time, but also a rewarding spiritual journey. While many focus on the day of the wedding, we seek that you both flourish the second day and beyond. We are happy to accompany you on your journey. For more information contact Marta Barkhausen at marta@stpioparish.com

Baptisms: The Church shares the joy of families in the birth of children, and, with their parents, takes seriously the responsibility of bringing them up in the faith. Please contact Ginny at the parish office to schedule.

Anointing of the Sick: This sacrament is given for those facing serious illness or surgery, and for those of advanced years. If you or a family member is planning to enter the hospital, please see one of the priests following Mass or call the rectory if you would like to receive this sacrament.

Funerals: Please call the Rectory

Dr. Fam has acquired the practice of Dr. Brian Rista and Dr. Marco Bongarzone. We look forward to providing both current and new patients with the best care!
